You can play games on your computer without spending a cent. Several websites are designed to offer computer games for free. Some of the games offered are pre-purchase trials, while others are completely free. Download-Free-Games.com offers many classic games to download. Family Feud, Monopoly, Scrabble, Bejeweled, Life and Risk are some of the games on offer. This website offers a variety of categories including card games, board games, children's games, puzzles, racing games, simulations, war and strategy games and word games. The site offers games are completely free or free trial versions of games you can purchase. The free trial allows you to try the game for a limited time or have some features locked. They require you to buy a game to continue playing or unlock some features. No adware or spyware has been reported from the site, which offers more than 800 games. Net-Games.biz offers free games to download, as well as online games, club players and multiplayer games. The website offers free games including action, arcade, racing and puzzle games. Lists the players with the highest scores, the 10 most-popular games and the IDs of new users. Yahoo! offers a great selection of online games that do not require downloading, for adults and children. Yahoo! also offers free games that can be downloaded to your computer – some of them free trials. Yahoo! offers sports and educational games for children. It also offers arcade, card and holiday games. If your child gets bored of games easily and is always trying to play something new, give Yahoo! a try. If your child loves everything Disney, consider the Disney website. Most games include Disney characters. These include Hannah Montana Rock that Beat, Tink's Fairy Tag, Bayou Adventure, Pixie Hollow and Zake and Luther's Doughnut Run. Sign up with a Disney account to access these favorites. For the holiday weekend we wanted to provide you with other ways to have fun. The following sites allow you to play and download classic and retro games such as DOS games, classic adventure games and old console games. Anonymous Game Developers (AGD) Interactive AGD Interactive is a game development group that is committed to bringing back classic adventure games by remingied classic Sierra Online adventure games like King's Quest. They remastered them with improved graphics, polished voice acting and more, and now offer them as free downloads. They also have a commercial adventure games company called Himalaya Studios. VirtualNES VirtualNES offers hundreds of vintage Nintendo Entertainment System (NES) games you can play online. They also offer some special games, such as unlicensed games by enterprised developers, unreleased games that have remained unfinished, and excellent home games from people who love video games and have decided to create their own. Nes brought home console gaming back to life when it came out. Nintendo8.com Nintendo8.com offers hundreds of classic Nintendo games from the 1980s and early 1990s available for online games. It's a link page that doesn't actually host any ROMs. All games associated with the site are considered abandonware or copyleft. The games use the vNES emulator from the virtualnes website above. They also have some sister sites that offer other classic console games that you can play online. Snesty (SNES games) c64i (Commodore 64 games) DOSDose (DOS games) MasterSystem8 (SEGA games) GBemul (Gameboy games) DOSBox DOSBox offers a full DOS environment that runs ancient DOS applications on Windows, Mac OS X, Linux, and other UNIX-like operating systems. It emulates Intel x86 PC, with sound, graphics, mouse, joystick, etc., which are necessary to run many old DOS games that can not run on modern operating systems. They also offer dosbox frontends such as D-Fend Reloaded (see below) to make it easier to use DOSBox. Check out our article for more information on using DOSBox. D-Fend Reloaded D-Fend Reloaded is a graphical environment or front-end for DOSBox. Installing and configuring a DOSBox can be complicated. The D-Fend Reloaded installation package includes DOSBox, so only one installation can be run. Before installing D-Fend Reloaded, you do not need to install DOSBox manually first. The download page also contains links to available games. You can also download PacPC, Ms. PacPC, and PC-Bert, which are clones of PacMan, Ms. PacMan, and Q-Bert. For more information about installing and using D-Fend Reloaded, see our article on this. MAME (Multiple Arcade Machine Emulator) MAME is a nonprofit project that aims to preserve many historical arcade games so that they do not disappear once the hardware they run stops working. To play games on MAME, CDs or hard drives from arcade machines. There is no original game code in the MAME executable file. There are also mame front-ends (available at the link above) that make it easy to use, or you can use MAMEUI, which is a desktop-oriented GUI front-end for MAME. For more information about MAME and MAMEUI, see our article on playing classic arcade games on your computer. Some game developers have released some of their free games that you can download from the MAME developer site. Abandonia Abandonia offers downloadable, classic abandonware games for DOS. Leavesware games are discontinued game programs for which there is no product support and whose copyright ownership has expired. Most games on the web have a review, screenshots, editor rating, and user rating. Explore and download old computer games by name, year, rating, and category. Abandonware DOS Abandonware Games offers a large selection of abandonware DOS games that are no longer supported by anyone. You can download games in categories such as promotions, races, RPGs and strategies. Most games have star ratings, status (freeware, shareware, etc.), screenshots and facts and trinkles about the game. Arcade Classic Arcade Games offers free online arcade games you can play online or even add to your own website or blog. They have a lot of retro games like Super Mario World, Galaga, PacMan, Donkey Kong Classic and Sonic the Hedgehog. FreeClassicDosGames.com Free Classic DOS Games offers about 200 free games, most of which are accompanied by reviews, descriptions, screenshots and a download link. The types of games available include action, adventure, arcade, role playing, shoot-em' ups, and strategies. You can browse each category one by one or use the search function to find a specific game. RGB Classic Games RGB Classic Games offers a large combination of classic games, previously unreleased games and even a few modern DOS games. RGB Classic Games is dedicated to preserving classic games for defunct PC operating systems (DOS, CP/M-86, OS/2, Win16, Win9x) and makes it easier to play them on modern PCs. Almost all games on RGB Classic Games were originally distributed commercially, except for a few shareware games that were very good. RGB Classic Games focus on quality, not quantity, and also try to include every version of each game listed on the web. From the Web: The highest ideals of this site are to support authors by providing links to their websites and ordering information for full versions of games that are still sold, and encouraging authors of classic games to preserve their games for future generations by being available for sale or as freeware. If you like shareware game, please consider buying from the author. All games on RGB Classic Games are freely distributable because they are shareware, freeware, or because the copyright holder has officially and legally issued all rights to the public domain (abandonware). DOS Games Archive DOS Games Archive offers an archive of 275 DOS games from the 1980s and 1990s, which can be downloaded for free. These are shareware, freeware, playable demos and full versions of games that are released as freeware or into a public domain. Free Game Empire Free Game Empire offers classic games that you play directly in your Firefox or Internet Explorer browser. The emulator in the browser is powered by the DOSBox system. They also have many forums dedicated to discussing games, a blog and the My Games section where you can log in and find all your active games. They also offer some old games to buy that are still sold at reasonable prices. You have to download each game to your computer, but the game takes place in your browser. Each game must be downloaded only once. You can then return to the site and play it at any time. The emulator can be uninstalled from the control panel. Free Game Empire games can only be played in Windows. Play.vg Play.vg offers classic DOS games you can play online like PacMan and Sonic the Hedgehog without downloading anything to your computer. Simply use Arrow keys and spacebar play games like Zork, Asteroids, and Tetris. Abandonware on free game downloads free game downloads offers a large collection of free abandonware games. Their site is not very exciting to look at, but it is easy to browse categories and search for specific games. Their list of games also includes some redesigned versions of classic Atari games. Remain In Play Remain in Play offers commercial DOS and non-DOS games that have been deliberately released as freeware. They have a lot of new and old games to download. You can sort games by name, genre, operating system, and even by game data type. If you want to search by rating, check out their list of Top 10 Games in the left sidebar. Bgames.com Bgames.com offers free classic Flash games such as RetroMash, Warning Foregone, and Alley Fighter. They update their list of fresh games for free daily. You can also browse other games that you can play online, games available for download, massively multiplayer online rpg games (MMORPG) games and multiplayer games. Free Classic Games on Online Flash Games Online Flash Games offers classic free games in their classic/retro categories such as break-out games, Tetris games, Mario games, Sonic games, Arkanoïd games, and Invader games. You can also find Flash remakes of old consoles, or platforms like the Commodore 64. Online-Games-Zone Online-Games-Zone offers free classic games, retro games and old-school games for online gaming such as Tetris and PacMan. Game thumbnails in the middle of the page are not listed alphabetically. On the left, however, you will find an alphabetical list. All Oldies All the Oldies offers free classic games found all over the web that you can play online. All games, except multiplayer games, do not require any registration. They are of high quality and are always free. GamezArena GamezArena offers a collection of free online classic games such as Ludo, Connect 4, Solitaire and Battleship. You can also license or purchase these games if you want to add them to your website. Free Classic 80's Arcade Games Free Classic 80's Arcade offers classic 1980s atari 2600, Nintendo (NES), Intellivision, and Colecovision games and even a Pong Game Console game for online gaming. They also have Shockwave, Flash and Java games and classic DOS games. Pogo.com Pogo.com offers a collection of classic games that you can play online, such as Monopoly, Chess and Cribbage. You can register for free, so you can enter daily chances to win prizes and earn tokens that you can keep and redeem for fun gifts. Join Club Pogo to get access to premium classic games and play ad-free games. Club Pogo also allows you to download more games on the download page. As of September 30, 2012, you can join Club Pogo for $29.99 per year, which is $10 off the regular price. You can also browse their collection of games for free. GOG.com GOG.com offers 100% DRM-free games for sale, many of which are less 20 dollars. Once you buy a game, you own it. There are no restrictions on how often you can download games from GOG.com cloud. You can also install them on as many computers as you want and back them up without restrictions. They also bundle exclusive content as a free download bonus. When you sign up, you will receive 9 PC classic games for free, including Pod Steel Sky and Ultima IV, so you can try GOG.com before buying any game. Wikipedia List of commercial video games Released as Freeware Wikipedia has a list of commercial video games released as freeware. These games were not freeware when originally released, but were re-released later with freeware licenses, sometimes as publicity for upcoming sequels or compilation releases. The list is continuously updated. There is also a list of games originally released as freeware. For a list of FOSS (free and open-source software) or FLOSS (free/libre/open source software) games, see wikipedia's list of open source video games. In addition to our article on playing classic arcade games on your PC, which was mentioned earlier, we also looked at how to play retro video games on your PC. You can also learn how to use Nintendo DS to play old NES, Gameboy, and even arcade games. Also learn fun video games trivia on Did you know that gaming?. For game reviews, interviews, features, previews, cheats, and forums, see Adventure Classic Gaming. There is also a site that allows you to play word search games online. Have fun! Fun!
